DOYLESTOWN.

The matter of letting public printing by contract can be regarded with a degree of satisfaction just now by both opponents and advocates of that system. Those who approve of the contract system are getting their printing very cheap, and those who do not believe in rewarding party opponents and traitors have the satisfaction of knowing that the very papers who have advocated the contract system from purely selfish motives have reached a point where it no longer pays to do the work. When the ballot printing was let by the Commissioners at their last meeting, one paper refused to bid. Another, the one most persistent in its demands for contract work, now confesses that there is no incentive to enter into competition with such a small margin of profit. And that is the situation. The printing of ballots is not a matter to be trifled with, but has considerable responsibility attached, as errors must not appear in any portion of the work. Therefore, the mere reimbursement for material and a small profit on wages do not pay for the responsibility involved. But the papers themselves have demanded that the contract system be introduced and maintained, and the taxpayer will not lose any sleep over the misfortunes of the publishers and printers.

An interesting experiment will be tried at Doylestown in the near future. It has to do with the matter of road making. On Monday evening Hon. E. G. Harrison, of the Bureau of Road Inquiry, Washington, D. C., lectured on the subject of road building before the pupils of the National Farm School, at Doylestown. The instructors, pupils and visitors were so enthused by Mr. Harrison's discourse that it was determined to demonstrate the utility of his plans by constructing a road according to his methods from the school to Doylestown, a distance of about a mile. Mr. Harrison promised to supervise the work. Prof. E. E. Faville, Dean of the school, appointed a committee to conduct the experiment, the members of which, in addition to himself, are Ezra Michener, Solebury; Dr. Harvey Kratz, New Britain, Hon. H J. Shoemaker and Louis Buckman, of Doylestown. In this matter alone the Farm School has proved a valuable institution in the community, especially since Secretary of Agriculture Wilson has become interested in its success.

At a meeting of the Doylestown School Board held on Monday evening, Principal A. S. Martin presented to the Directors some interesting figures in relation to the school savings system, which demonstrated how the pennies and dimes put away in this fashion will accumulate in the course of years. It appears that there are 247 pupils on the bank register, of which number 176 are depositors The deposits up to January 1, 1899, amounted to $11,547 71. During the year ending January 1, 1900, there was deposited $1467.78, making the total amount of deposits since the system was inaugurated $13,015.44 The amount withdrawn during the entire period was $8173 77. The amount due depositors on January 1 last was $4,841.67. Prof. Martin's statement was a surprise to many people who have regarded the school savings bank as a sort of plaything.

Register of Wills John T. Fish returned to his official duties on Monday after an absence of nearly two weeks in North Carolina, in company with Edward Beans, of Falls. Messrs. Fish and Beans went South for a hunting trip, and secured a number of ducks and quail. They found that they were too late for the deer shooting. They spent the time along Pamlico Sound, until recently an isolated place Upon this occasion, however, they found the territory had been invaded by lumberman and oysterman, and that an industrious little colony had sprung up at their stopping place.

Considerable interest is being manifested here over the election of Justices of the Peace. While the borough is Republican the Democratic candidates hope to secure enough Republican votes to twist the thing in their favor. One candidate in particular, Charles S Nightingale, is making a diligent canvass for votes. The Republicans have two excellent candidates in Warren S Ely and Lewis R Bond, Esq., and they should have the united support of their party, but Doylestown is an uncertain quantity when it comes to voting for local candidates.

Mahlon H. Stout, Esq, one of the most popular members of the Bucks County Bar, has returned to Doylestown from California after an absence of more than a year. Mr. Stout went to California with the hope that his wife, who was an invalid, might be benefitted by the change of climate, but Mrs. Stout died in her new home, and also a little son. Mr. Stout decided to return to Doylestown, where he received a very cordial welcome from his friends. He will resume the practice of the law.

An esteemed resident of Doylestown, Mrs. Anna Frances Knight, aged 89 years, wife of Moses Knight, was laid to rest at Somerton on Saturday. Mrs. Knight lived with her husband at Langhorne several years and had many friends in the lower end of the county. She was a daughter of the late Franklin Comly, Esq., of Somerton. She succumbed to a stroke of apoplexy, and died on Wednesday morning, January 31.

Dr. W G. Benner, veterinary surgeon, had an unpleasant professional duty to perform on Tuesday morning, when it was necessary to kill about 16 fine cows belonging to the herd of Thomas Michener, near Doylestown. The animals were afflicted with tuberculosis, and their destruction was a severe loss to the owner.

TULLYTOWN.

The regular meeting of Borough Council was held on Monday evening, five members being present. Several bills were passed for work done on Main street and the President, Henry Lovett, was authorized to obtain a legal opinion as to the jurisdiction of Council over the turnpike, which is Main street in the borough. This action was brought about by the discussion of the extremely bad condition of some of the sidewalks of this street. After considering the subject at some length it was deemed advisable for Council to try to determine the question of its jurisdiction before making any improvements

The campaign for the February election has thus far been a very quiet one, there being as yet very little excitement The fact that there is no contest for the office of Burgess, no doubt detracts from the enthusiasm that might otherwise be felt. A number of the candidates are getting about among their friends soliciting support, and this work will no doubt count on election day.

Another one of the popular dances of this season will be held at Red Men's Hall next Wednesday evening, the 14th instant. The usual good attendance is expected. Patterson's orchestra will furnish the music. A special feature of this entertainment will be selections on a gramophone which will amuse the company present between the dances.

One of the brightest baby faces in last Sunday's Philadelphia Inquirer was that of Grace Brennan, of Tullytown. The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brennan sincerely hope to see this little one carry off the prize.

Mrs. Arthur Denham and Watson Harper, of Philadelphia, have recently been visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Harper.

Mrs. B. C. Kirby, of Kingston, N. J., formerly of this place, was visiting friends in Tullytown the first of the week.

The "Social" of the M. E Church met at Henry M. Wright's residence on Bordentown road last Tuesday evening.

John Windle, of Philadelphia, was the guest of Postmaster E. E. Johnson, the forepart of this week.

PENN'S MANOR.

Miss Jennie Greenle was visiting her father on Sunday.

Some belated farmers took advantage of the recent cold spell to fill their ice houses.

George Baker lost a valuable cow on Monday night. She left him two little calves behind.

Mrs. E. Woolsey, of Bordentown, was a visitor at Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Sterling's for a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs Harry Woolsey have arrived home after an extended trip down in the flowery State, which they have apparently very much enjoyed.

Charles Appenzeller finished assorting his tobacco this week. Others are anxiously waiting for another good damp spell to take the balance down from the poles.

On Monday evening the Christian Endeavor Society held a business meeting in the chapel, contemplating arrangements to give an entertainment in the near future.

Rev. A. S. Pittenger preached a very interesting sermon last Sunday evening in the chapel from Ruth 2.1. Owing to the inclement weather the attendance was small.

It was announced from the pulpit on last Sunday evening that Rev. A. S. Pittenger will introduce a new speaker next Sunday evening to speak in his stead All are invited.

The Delaware river is open again from Bordentown down, owing to the warm weather and rain of last Sunday. On Saturday morning Charles Appenzeller walked across the ice to Bordentown.

Agents for fertilizers are very busy at present canvassing in this neighborhood trying to sell their goods. Of course each one of them claims to have as good goods and a little better than the other one. The farmer has to listen to all of their arguments and when they have finally finished he passes judgment and generally says: "Not today."

PENN VALLEY.

Mrs. Lydia Pancoast received the following letter from her grandson, a sharpshooter in the 28th Infantry.

MANILA, Dec. 10, 1899.

Dear Grandmother:—I now write these few lines to let you know that I am well and hope you are the same. We are on the firing line now but there is not much shooting. I guess the war is about over. One of the boys in Co. L shot a negro on Thursday night; he was on out-post duty at the time.

We stayed in Manila ten days in the old Spanish barracks. We are now about fifteen miles from Manila on the south line. Our trip on the water was lovely. We left San Francisco on the twenty-fifth of October and we landed in Manila on the twenty-fourth of November. We stopped in Honolulu one day. We were all sea sick the next day after we started but it didn't last long.

I suppose you are having very cold weather now in the east. It is not very cold here; it is very hot in the day time and cool in the evenings.

I wish you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

I remain your loving grandson,

Alfred J. Wildman, the carriage manufacturer, reports business as unusually good at the present time. He is now filling orders for a large number of milk and light delivery wagons.

H. B. Harper lost a very valuable Irish setter dog on Saturday afternoon. A few of the members of the local gunning club were engaged in a practice shoot at live birds, and one of the marksmen wounded a bird, which alighted on the ice covering a nearby pond. The dog bounded across the ice, to capture the bird and in so doing it fell through the ice, and was drowned. The dog was well trained and was highly valued by its owner.

No business of importance came up before Council at its meeting on Thursday night. It was thought that at this session the plan whereby this borough was to furnish the water supply for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to be used at the yards on the Trenton cut-off road just below this place would come up for consideration and adjustment. The matter was carried over, however, as the company's representative failed to put in his appearance in order to discuss the plans of the proposed project. From what can be learned at the present time it seems that the matter will be brought to a successful termination in the near future, although such being the case the work of laying the pipes and mains would hardly be commenced before spring.

The cut is after an old painting of a man gambling with Death with his life as a stake. Behind the man stands his good angel striving to save him.

This game with life as the stake is the every-day game of men and women. Behind the player stands the good angel Nature, striving to preserve the life. Even when the game is almost in Death's hands, the man who turns to Nature and lets her help him may yet save himself. Medical science knows this, and its highest authorities affirm that the utmost medical skill can do is to help Nature.

The great success of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in curing wasted bodies, weak lungs, and obstinate and lingering coughs, is based on the recognition of this fundamental scientific truth. "Golden Medical Discovery" supplies Nature with body building, tissue repairing, muscle making materials, in condensed and concentrated form. With this help Nature supplies the strength to throw off diseases of the lungs, heal the sick stomach, reestablish the digestive and nutritive organs in sound health, purify and enrich the blood, and nourish the nerves.

If your dealer offers something "just as good," it is probably better for him; it pays better. But you are thinking of the cure not the profit, so there's nothing "just as good" for you. Say so.

In a letter received from A. D. Weller, Esq., of Pensacola, Escambia Co., Fla. (Box 544), he states: "I have, since receiving your diagnosis of my case as stomach trouble and liver complaint, taken eight bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and must say that I am transformed from a walking shadow (as my friends called me), to perfect health. I value your remedies very highly and take pleasure in recommending them to any and all who suffer as I did. Four months ago I did not think to be in shape to assist our 'Uncle Samuel' in case of hostilities, but thanks to you, I am now ready for the Dons!"

THURSDAY FEBRUARY 8, 1900.

Bryan, the orator, is in Burlington this afternoon. Those who feel the need of a change of air will cross the river.

The "antis" of Montgomery county were a little hasty in claiming Chairman Solly. That gentleman was invited to one of their conferences, but he gave them the "marble heart."

Thomas Y. McCarty, of Bucksville, has announced himself as a candidate for delegate to the coming Republican State Convention. Mr. McCarty is a well known Republican in the upper end of the county.

After careful investigation of the lists submitted by the Republican city committee for the purchase of tax receipts, Tax Receiver Roney cut off seven-eighths of the 20,427 names, as having been either forged or fictitious, and will issue only 2557 receipts.

The Press utters a wail and files a vigorous protest against Republican candidates for the Legislature agreeing to enter a party caucus, which is denounced as a Quay trap. How can it be a Quay trap if the "insurgents" are going to elect a majority of the Legislature this year, as has been repeatedly predicted by the Press?

At a meeting of the newly organized Republican National Congressional Committee held in Washington on Monday a resolution was adopted requesting that early conventions be held in the various Congressional districts in order that the National Committee may learn the names of the nominees and officers and bring about general co-operation. The VIIth district should comply with the request.

The Republicans of Indiana county have passed a resolution that candidates of the Legislature shall pledge their word and honor, that if nominated they will abide by the rules of the Republican party in county, State and Nation; abide by the result of the deliberations of any body of Republicans when decided by a majority of persons constituting such body; and that they will take part in and abide by the result of caucus proceedings.

The North Wales Record says that the Montgomery County Board of Commissioners "have wisely concluded not to depart from the method in vogue for a number of years in the matter of advertising the county treasurer's statement. By this method all the tax payers in the county, by means of the newspapers, have an opportunity to ascertain how the county's money is expended, at a very reasonable cost. The report first circulated by the Harleysville News, and a wider publicity given to it by the Hatboro Spirit and Jenkintown Times Chronicle, to the effect that the Commissioners would advertise the statement in only two newspapers, had no foundation in fact, and was therefore an unjust reflection upon the Board." If as the Record says the Commissioners have wisely concluded not to depart from the old method, the inference is that the Commissioners did contemplate a change.

A correspondent writes that "There is one thing about Governor Stone that all men who have followed his course, in peace and war, as lawyer, layman and as governor, we all know where he stands and where we can find him. He is not Janus-faced. He is not always right, but he is always clear as the noon day sun. He would make a great president, he has the courage of Jackson, but he would brook no insult, no bribe however big could frighten him or cabal cajole him from his course. In this respect he might involve us in war but we would always know where to find him. McKinley belongs to the Blaine school of statesmen, Stone to the Jackson, General Taylor and General William Henry Harrison home bred statesmen. I admire him for his courage even if I do not love some of his colleagues and confreres but I commend him for his imperial clarion as it sounds along the whole line of battle."

One only has to keep track of the arguments used by the eminently respectable "reform" newspapers of Philadelphia to be convinced that their antagonism to Senator Quay causes them to be deceivers. A short time ago the Press and others were daring Senator Quay to bring his case to a test vote in the Senate, and pretended to display a feverish anxiety lest the matter would die in the Committee. Now that Senator Chandler has been trying to get the case before the Senate, as urgently demanded by the wobbling journals, the action is denounced and the cries of "The Financial Bill" is raised. Another argument used against the seating of Senator Quay was that in such case California's Governor would appoint Dan Burns, a notorious character on the Pacific coast. The California Legislature has since convened for the purpose of electing a Senator, and the Quaker City journals reshape their arguments to fit the changed conditions. Again it has been but a few weeks since the bargain papers were picturing great distress in educational circles in Philadelphia, claiming that schools in the city would have to close because Quay's State Treasurer was withholding appropriations. Now comes City Treasurer Clayton McMichael, who says in his annual report:

"Experience, understanding of the financial systems of the State, and the records of the Department of City Treasurer must correct other opinion and create the present belief that much of the inconsiderate criticism of the Commonwealth and its officers at Harrisburg, in connection with the payment of obligations to the city, has been unjust and unwarranted. If Philadelphia has been shown no favoritism, the city has been the victim of no injustice. At the moment of date of this report every dollar due to the city under the division of school appropriation for the year, amounting to $854,204.57, has been received from the State Treasurer."

In the issue with the Treasurer's report Colonel McMichael is editorially complimented in the highest terms by these same papers which have been playing the part of the trickster in opposing Senator Quay. It requires no other agency to refute the lies published by the Press and North American, those journals condemn themselves. All that they need is time. We took their measure long ago.

THE "QUAY HUNT."

The bitter hatred displayed by two of Philadelphia's newspapers toward Senator Quay is manifested by the savage attacks made upon the Beaver statesman, and by the use of glaring headlines proclaim that Senator Quay belongs to a gang of ballot box stuffers. One despicable journal, whose editor was recently imported from New York, where he held a position on one of the "yellowest" of Gotham's Democratic sheets, made use of a picture of Colonel Quay in a poster-type heading announcing the arrest of the stuffing thugs. Those eminently respectable (?) journals seem to forget that the creatures whom they condemn for election fraud were caught to rob and steal upon election day by one of Colonel Quay's bitterest political foes who is now high in the counsels of the Quaker City reformers.

Hypocrisy, sophistry and deceit appear to be the only weapons at the command of the mouth-pieces of the Business Men's League

Mr. Quay had just as much to do with the frauds in Philadelphia as the editor of any anti Quay paper, and no more. To show that there is no broad guage honesty in this coterie of factionists it is only necessary to state another fact. It has been discovered that a quite active and pronounced anti-Quay worker, a collector of delinquent taxes, has disappeared leaving a deficit of several thousand dollars. Of course some might expect the anti Quay papers to cry out most lustily against such dereliction. But no. They are as quiet as "sucking doves." Their ox has been gored and they want justice. The other ox has gored the public, as is alleged, and we see very little indignation displayed by the owners of the bull.

Such journalists need to learn that they cannot fool even a few people all of the time They may fool themselves, and probably they do. But they cannot pose as honest, broad-minded men even for twenty-four hours. Every honest man should demand the punishment of every corrupter of the ballot because such a person is the enemy of the State: and every honest man should demand the punishment of every defaulter because he has robbed the people

The little coterie of Anti-Quayites of Montgomery county is ravenously hungry for a Congressman—one that will feed its members on Federal spoils and thus add strength to its weakling limbs. The present encumbent is too fair in his dealings to suit the Dumblytes, who desire a candidate whom they can clasp to their breasts and call him blessed. Congressman Wanger serves his district well and deserves and is supported by the solid members of the party. The Royersford Tribune, although anti-Quay in its political proclivities, stamps with disapproval the actions of parties who desire the retirement of Mr. Wanger. The Tribune says:

Congressman Wanger has had an experience in the House at Washington which will in future redound to the interests of the people of the whole district. His ability as a representative is undisputed, and the close attention which he gives to the public business is silencing the opposition to his return. If any sensible reason can be advanced why he should be retired in favor of some other Republican we shall be glad to learn it. We do not class the rotation argument as a sensible one, but rather on the contrary an insensible one when applied to a National legislator.

THE BOERS DENOUNCED.

John Hays Hammond, an American mining engineer, who has been upon the scene in the Transvaal, expresses himself in vigorous language in denouncing the Boers. Kruger is called a political trickster who rules a corrupt government Mr Hammond is a distinguished American mining engineer, who was in charge of large gold mining interests in the Transvaal when the Jameson raid occurred in 1895, and was one of the four members of the Reform Committee of Johannesburg who had been condemned to death by President Kruger's government.

At an address delivered in Pottstown on last Thursday Mr. Hammond pictured Kruger as an unscrupulous trickster and crafty politician, whose policy is being blindly followed by the Boers. In defending England's position in the war he said:

"Great Britain fights today for the old American principle of 'No taxation without representation.' She urges that residents who developed the country's wealth and pay nine-tenths of the taxes should have a vote and voice in the government. Subversion of the Constitution by Kruger and undemocratic methods in general are objected to. The jury system in vogue dispenses justice only to Boers. President Kruger may expel any man from the country without chance of redress. The freedom of the press is throttled. The liquor traffic is unrestricted and 35 per cent. of labor is incapacitated from this cause.

"Only Dutch is taught in the schools and English money mainly sustains the teaching The political corruption is intolerable and America is nowhere in sight by comparison. In one instance, 21 to 26 members of the Parliament were bribed. It is not known where the other four were when the coin was passed around.

"England is fighting the battle of freedom in this war. The conspiracy against her by Dutch influences has been brewing for years and was known to others before Britain herself realized it. The Boer has been awaiting the opportunity of British complication with some foreign power. There are two guns for every Boer and the burghers are excited to the thought of easily whipping England. Continuation of British influence will be the best for the Transvaal."

Mr. Hammond severely criticises the British campaign thus far and shows that it was a mistake to make Ladysmith, Mafeking and Kimberley the strategic points of the manoeuvres.

It is stated on very good authority that William F. Solly, Esq., will not be a candidate for delegate to the National Convention. Mr. Solly is a true harmonizer, faithful to his party and a very admirable gentleman.—Jenkintown Times-Chronicle.

We would inquire of Brother Clayton, if Mr. Solly had not retired from the contest and remained in the field in opposition to Mr. Boeler, would Mr. Solly still have been "a very admirable gentleman" in the estimation of our esteemed contemporary? It will strike the average reader that the above compliment has a peculiar twang to it.

The epidemic of typhoid fever in Trenton is claimed to have resulted from the use of Delaware river water. Dr. Mitchell, Secretary of the State Board of Health, declares that the Delaware is polluted, and therefore dangerous to health. Bristol's water supply is from the same source and it is believed that the time is not far distant when the citizens will demand relief from the miserable liquid that is furnished to their homes.

IMPORTANT IF TRUE.

Hatboro Spirit.

The ultra radicals in the Republican ranks, who are uncompromising in their factional support of ex Senator Quay, have again been compelled to yield a point and relinquish a pet project. For some time it has been their aim to introduce an innovation in the Seventh Congressional District and combine the two district conventions in one to nominate a candidate for Congress and elect two national delegates and as many alternates. A conference, composed principally of executive committeemen of Bucks and Montgomery counties, comprising the district, was held in Philadelphia Saturday. [January 27.] The conservative school in the organizations of both counties prevailed, and as hitherto, two conventions will be held. The first convention to elect national delegates and alternates will be held in Montgomery county some time in May The Congressional convention will be held in Bucks county late in June or early in July. The time and places will be selected by conferees to be appointed by the chairmen of the two counties.

Notices similar to the above have appeared in several of the Montgomery county newspapers. Speaking for this end of the Seventh Congressional District we do not believe that any such conference took place at which the Republican leaders of Bucks county agreed to any such proposition

At the Republican county committee meeting held in Doylestown on Monday, January 29, the party leaders of this county were in perfect accord with the spirit of the resolution adopted that it was the sense of the Bucks Republicans that the two conventions be both held at the same time and at the same place.

If there had been a conference in which the leaders of this county had agreed upon a different proposition, the fact would have come to light at the county committee meeting

There can be no serious objection to holding separate conventions, and the conferees may so agree, but we seriously object to the manner in which the Spirit attempts to deceive its readers by claiming a bloodless anti-Quay victory. Our Hatboro contemporary is usurping the prerogatives of the conferees.

SOCIETY AND WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE.

Last Sunday Cardinal Gibbons preached in the Cathedral at Baltimore and criticised society and woman's suffrage in the strongest terms. He said of the former that "they are never at rest unless they are in pursuit of amusement; they are never at ease unless enjoying morbid excitement and gaiety; they are never at home unless they are abroad. All the solemn duties which are theirs by virtue of their positions in the home rest lightly on their shoulders

"In the wrecking of many a life such women have had a large part."

But it was against women suffragists that the Cardinal's words were chiefly directed. Of them he said:

"They rob woman of all that is amiable and gentle, tender and attractive; they rob her of her innate grace of character, and give her nothing in return but masculine boldness and brazen effrontery.

"They are habitually preaching about woman's rights and prerogatives, and have not a word to say about her duties and responsibilities. They withdraw her from those sacred obligations which properly belong to her sex, and fill her with ambition to usurp positions for which neither God nor nature ever intended her.

"Her afflicted husband comes home to find it empty or occupied by a woman whose heart is void of affection for him She is ill at ease; then arise disputes, quarrels, recrimination, estrangements, and the last act in the drama is often divorce"

William J. Bryan is said to have aged rapidly in appearance since the day he captivated the Chicago convention with his glittering imagery of a "cross of gold," but those who heard him on the occasion of his visit to Harrisburg last week say he has lost none of his old-time eloquence. His chief charm appears to lie in his perfect oratory, and he is one of the class of men—whose numbers are by no means small—that can make sophistry convincing by the powers of language. It is significant however, that the old-line leaders of Democracy shun him almost without exception His following is composed chiefly of the younger men who are attracted by his magnetic personality and enthused by his perorations. The older heads may admire his oratory, but they are not carried off their feet by it. They understand that success depends more upon logic than elocution, and know that soap-bubbles, however beautiful they may be, are of no practical use. The issues of the coming campaign, as formulated by Mr. Bryan, will be silver, trusts and anti-imperialism. The silver issue was tried to a conclusion during the last Presidential campaign, and if not wholly dead, is so near it as to make attempts at resuscitation useless. So for as trusts are concerned, granting that their evils are all that Mr. Bryan pictures them, we await from him, or from anyone else, a plan for dealing with them that will not work more harm than good to the commercial interests. In his attack upon what he is pleased to term "imperialism" Mr. Bryan will have some following, for right or wrong, there are always some who are "agin the government." But it is not possible that he can secure enough of a following to elect him President. The gravest issues are at stake in the administration of public affairs now, and the clearest judgment, and wisest counsel and the coolest heads are demanded for the work. To exchange a tried man like McKinley for an experiment like Bryan would be the height of folly.—North Wales Record.

George M. Corson, the able lawyer and astute political writer of Norristown, declares that the alleged factional disturbances in Montgomery are purely the product of a vivid imagination. In one of his weekly letters Mr Corson says:

It seems as if the Philadelphia Press is determined in its persistence to create and foster strife among the Republicans, and even to conjure up factional fights where there are none and none were imagined until that paper pictured it as raging in Montgomery county. For instance, it stated that the Quay faction—pardon me for using the name of the Senator for I take no part in factional controversy—was opposing Mr. Solly for a position and supporting Mr. Boeler, and vice versa, when the truth is no such question has arisen in this county between these gentlemen, for neither one of them has distinctly announced himself as a candidate for any office so far as I am able to learn. Other people are running them up and down to suit themselves.

Harry J. Shoemaker, Esq., who was a candidate for School Director before the recent Doylestown township Republican caucus, was beaten for the nomination. The vote was 16 for Shoemaker to 25 for Elwood Heisler.

Parents.

Your children are liable to Colds, Coughs, Sore Throat, Whooping Cough, Croup, Inflammation of the Lungs and other throat and lung diseases. Children die of these wholesale, yet prompt treatment would have saved most of them. Stretch's Balsam is a pleasant, quick, certain children's medicine, and should be kept in every house! Mr. W. H. Beadle, of Paterson, N. J., writes:

"For five years past we have used Stretch's Balsam in preference to home remedies or physicians' prescriptions. It is regarded in our family as a specific for colds and croup. It is also invaluable for whooping cough No family where there are children should be without it At druggists, in 25 and 50 cent bottles; large size cheaper.

It has been fully demonstrated that Ely's Cream Balm is a specific for Nasal Catarrh and cold in the head. This distinction has been achieved only as the result of continued successful use. A morbid condition of the membrane in the nasal passages can be cured by this purifying and healing treatment Sold by druggists or it will be mailed for 50 cents by Ely Brothers, 50 Warren street, New York. It spreads over the membrane, is absorbed and relief is immediate.

Yard's new embroideries

are a feast for lovers of beauty. They ought to be more in favor with buyers this year than formerly, which is saying a great deal.

We lean to the neat and tasteful, rather than to the unduly loud, coarse patterns. In part, that explains their popularity.

The new stock is rich in neat and dainty designs, many at surprisingly low prices, too. Effort has been made to secure eyeable designs, yet inexpensive ones.

Just as inklings we give room to some descriptions.

In Insertions.

A fine variety of patterns running from 1 and 1½-in. designs at 10c up to 3½-in. designs at 48c.

With us, quality always varies the price.

In Edges.

Some as wide as 11½ inches, especially appropriate for skirt trimming.

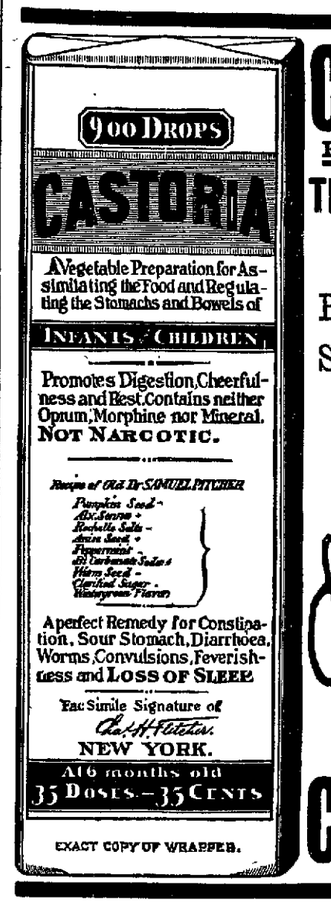

11½ in. at 35c. 9½ in. at 30c. 8-in. at 25c. Heavier 8-in at 44c. Heavily covered.

Also, a large variety of 3, 4 and 5-in. patterns, at 14c, 16c, 20c, 25c. Price varying with pattern.

Besides which we've an unusually big stock of 1-in. edges, running from 6c to 14c.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Next Wednesday is St. Valentine's Day.

The ferryboat William E. Doron resumed its trips yesterday.

The Bristol School Board has received its full State appropriation for the year 1899.

About $90 were cleared by the Presbyterians as a result of the supper recently held.

John T. Smith has gone to Pittsburg in the interest of the United States Casualty Company, of Philadelphia.

The Page degree will be conferred upon one candidate at the Knights of Pythias meeting tomorrow evening.

The "Spinsters' Fortnightly Club," is arranging to give a public entertainment for the benefit of the Bristol Library.

Mother's meeting of the W. C. T. U. Wednesday, February 14, at 3.30 p. m., to which friends and strangers are welcome.

A coffee party will be given under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of the Lutheran church at the home of Mrs. Julius Katzman Friday night.

One hundred and thirty-eight books have been added to the library of the M. E. Sunday school. The shelves now contain a total of 600 volumes.

Colonel William J. Bryan is in Burlington today. A number of Bristolians journeyed across the river to listen to the remarkable eloquence of the permanent candidate.

The State Pure Food Inspector has been in town this week visiting the groceries for the purpose of learning whether the local merchants are complying with the food laws.

Mrs. John F. Smith entertained the Aid Society of the Lutheran Church at her home on Pond street last Monday evening, in honor of the 66th anniversary of her birth.

The regular quarterly pensions were received by the beneficiaries of the government this week. There are about 100 Bristolians who participate regularly in the destribution of funds.

It is rumored that the Rev. William Towle, who has been assisting Rev. William Bryce Morrow of St. James' church, has accepted a call as assistant rector of Holy Trinity church, New York City.

Jack Naylor, the Burlington Gazette's "funny man" has left the employ of our cross-river contemporary and has accepted a position with the Philadelphia Evening Telegraph as Assistant Sporting Editor.

Joseph R. Grundy, of Bristol, has been appointed by Mayor Ashbridge a member of the special committee which has been formed for the purpose of raising the $100,000 National Convention guarantee fund.

Dr. Howard Pursell, who returned from Florida last week, has a number of trophies of his trip displayed in his drug store window on Mill street. The collection consists of two small live alligators, shells and specimens of tropical growth.

One of the book keepers in the office of William H. Grundy and Company who has a sustained reputation as a fancy skater attracted an admiring audience last week who watched his graceful evolutions on the steel runners upon the frozen mill pond.

The annual financial statement of Bucks county is printed in this issue of the GAZETTE. The Commissioners of this county make an unusually explicit announcement regarding the business affairs of the county in which all taxpayers are interested.

Levi Hackett has moved from the corner of Pond street and Jefferson avenue, to the building formerly used as a night school, near the Hollow bridge. John Smiley, who was recently hurt at the railroad, will occupy the premises vacated by Hackett.

Miss Nora Clark, teacher of Bloomsdale School, who was called home by a message conveying the sad intelligence of the death of her brother—electrician for the Manhattan Electric Light Company, New York City—has returned after an absence of five weeks.

The river water that Bristolians are compelled to use for drinking and domestic purposes is again largely composed of mud. Every time there is a rain or wind storm causing a freshet, water customers suffer the consequences. It is not necessary to leave home to enjoy a mud bath.

A skating carnival was held on LaRue's lake, Edgely, on Saturday evening last. The lake was brightly illuminated. There were some fine speed and fancy skaters present. Those who attended were from Hulmeville, Edgely, Tullytown and Bristol. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

Our Bristol tailor, F. E. Milburn, will, after February 12th, be located at 111 Mill street. By diligent and patient attention he has built up an enviable trade in Bristol. His work is always satisfactory, and you would do well to give him a trial. We wish him success in his new store.

The ordinance of baptism will be administered at the Baptist Church on Sunday evening by the pastor. The sermon, both morning and evening, will be preached by Ernest A. Boom who is holding revival meetings in the church. Mass meeting at 4 o'clock. All welcome.

Miss Elisabeth Weh will give the first of a series of free lectures or talks to the ladies of Bristol in Pythian Hall on Tuesday afternoon next in the interest of a higher physical life for woman. Miss Weh has addressed audiences in this county at Doylestown, Newtown and Langhorne, and the papers of those localities speak in high terms of her ability in interesting her hearers.

The Primary and Junior Union for Langhorne and vicinity will meet on Wednesday, February 14, at 8 p. m., in the Presbyterian church, Langhorne. I. P. Black, Secretary of the International Primary Department, will teach the lesson, and Rev. Samuel Polk, of Eddington, will discuss "How the Home and School may be Mutually Helpful." All interested in better Sunday school work are cordially invited.

The members of the Bristol police force are a vigilant set of men. Last week the Second ward patrolman routed out a Dorrance street butcher at about midnight and informed him that a string of hams was hanging in front of his store. The eagle-eyed policeman was politely told that the supposed hams were composed chiefly of sawdust, and were displayed for advertising purposes. The bluecoat, upon hearing the news, did not tarry long enough even to say good night.

It is almost worth while being sick to enjoy the delights of modern medical practice. Champagne is the top-notch remedy for typhoid fever, and massage is the only sure cure for muscular rheumatism. For bronchial troubles a delightful spray of perfumed antiseptics has been devised, and for insomnia a learned practitioner has discovered that nothing is so good as a substantial meal just before retiring. The fact that roaches, spiders, rats, snakes, snails, oyster shells, gold dust and fleas are used in the compounding of some prescriptions don't matter much to a man who is kept on a champagne diet for six weeks on a stretch.

Goodwill Hose Company's fair and bazaar which has been in progress for several weeks at Mohican Hall, will close on Saturday night. The company members have been very successful in their sale of articles. A number of valuable contributions were received which will largely add to the fund which is being raised to liquidate the indebtedness of the company. A check for $50 was received from the Mutual Beneficial Insurance Association, of Langhorne, also a check for $25 from the Bristol Improvement Company. Articles of furniture were also contributed by several large Philadelphia stores, which were placed on sale at the fair.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. James Wright left Bristol on Tuesday for a two months' stay in Florida.

Mrs James McNeil is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Phillips, at Wyncote, Pa.

Mrs George Ardrey spent several days in the early part of this week visiting relatives in Emilie.

Henry Lombaert left Bristol on Monday for Salem, Illinois, where he will reside in the future.

Miss Florence M. Martin will entertain the Pleasure Social at the home of Mrs. A. W. Doust tonight.

Misses Emma Lewis and Florence A. Nutt, of Trenton, were the guests of Mrs. William D. Davis last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs Charles Powell have just returned from a week's visit to friends and relatives in Doylestown.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ford, of Philadelphia, spent last Saturday in Bristol, the guests of Mr. and Mrs H. A. Bailey.

Mrs. William H. Grundy and Miss Annie B. Landreth are in Washington, D. C., where they will remain during the month of February.

Mrs. Anna Bailey King will leave on Saturday for Jersey City where she will remain until May. Mrs. King has been spending the past six weeks with her mother, Mrs. E A. King, on Cedar street, who had a bad fall in November, which injured her hip. The elder Mrs King is in her 83rd year and is still confined to her room as a result of the injury received.

On the Sick List.

A six year-old son of Charles Appleton has the pneumonia.

George Hunter, who was recovering nicely last week from his illness, has suffered a relapse.

John Tyrol, who has been confined to his home on Mulberry street for several weeks, is again able to attend to business.

Miss Lizzie Kinsey is slowly recovering from her attack of illness and was able to walk across the room this week. Her ailment is said to have resulted from a paralysis of the nerves.

Mrs. Henry G. Booz is seriously ill at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Parker Fine, on Wood street. A trained nurse is in attendance. Mrs. Booz's brother, Frank Bache, and a consulting physician were summoned yesterday.

A Good Sale Medium,

The attention of those who contemplate holding public sales is called to the advertising columns of the GAZETTE. As a medium of conveying the news of a public sale, the GAZETTE will prove of exceptional worth. With a large circulation which covers the Delaware Valley in Bucks county intending sellers cannot judiciously avoid using the space offered for advertising purposes. The GAZETTE is a purely home paper that is carefully read and preserved by several thousand well-to-do residents of the prosperous districts of lower Bucks county. The sale season is at hand and a little money wisely expended will bring good results.

Burst a Blood Vessel.

Last Saturday evening George Callanan, Jr., was assisting in carrying a stove down stairs at his home on Dorrance street, when he was rendered insensible by a terrible pain in the head. Although considerable better at the present time grave fears for his recovery were entertained. Mr. Callanan declares that the last he remembers was a shock which felt like an explosion in his head accompanied by great pain. He was carried to his bed and the doctor immediately summoned. The strain resulting from physical exertion and nervousness caused by the alarm of fire at his home the night before are given as the contributing causes for the rupture of a blood vessel.

Little Oil Stove Causes Trouble.

The fire department was summoned to the residence of George Callanan, Jr., on Dorrance street last Friday evening. The cause for the alarm was a smoking oil heater. A small oil stove had been lighted in one of the upstair rooms and left to burn while the members of the family were engaged in other parts of the house. When Mrs. Callanan opened the door to re-enter the room, she was staggered. The room was one mass of heavy smoke, so dense that the light of the stove was invisible. Mrs. Callanan groped around in the stifling atmosphere and found the troublesome cause which was pouring forth its fumes at a terrific rate; grasping the heater, she tossed it out of the window, causing a sheet of flame to follow. The only damage done was the discoloration of the walls and woodwork of the room which will have to be re-papered and re-painted.

An Interesting Report.

Miss Louise D. Baggs, Superintendent of Bristol Public Schools, made the following report for the school month, ending January 4, 1900, at the monthly meeting of the School Board held on Tuesday evening. Number of scholars enrolled 780; greatest number present 721; least number present 581; average attendance 658; percentage of attendance 86; present every half-day 182; new pupils admitted 12; number promoted 9. Primary, C Department, Wood street, Anna L Brady, teacher, is the largest, having 60 scholars enrolled. Twenty scholars are in the High School and the classes in all the departments are full. The regular half-yearly examination was held last week, and the promotions made yesterday. The work in all the departments was of a creditable character. Miss Baggs will attend the convention of Public School Superintendents to be held at the University of Pennsylvania on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

Gymnasium for Fire Laddies.

The members of America Hose, Hook and Ladder Co., No. 2, contemplate the erection of a handsome two-story gymnasium and club house on Pond street adjoining the company's present quarters. At their regular meeting held on Tuesday evening plans were submitted and the trustees instructed to procure estimates for construction according to specification. The proposed structure will be a two story frame building 28x80 feet. The first floor will be used for a gymnasium while in the rooms on the second floor it is proposed to have a reading room, shuffle board, bowling alley and pool table, toilet and baths. A fine class of flooring will be used below, suitable for dances. The enterprise is a laudable one, as such conveniences will tend to keep the young men who form the membership away from places where lurking vices so often cause the downfall of respectability.

Death of Mrs. Symington Phillips.

Mrs. Margaret Ann Phillips, widow of the late Symington Phillips, died at Philadelphia where she had gone to spend the winter months, on Tuesday, the 6th inst., after a brief illness. The funeral services, to which relatives and friends are invited, will be held at her late residence, on Radcliffe street, at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Mrs. Phillips was a lifelong resident of Bristol. She was the daughter of a prominent resident of the borough in former years, Dr John Phillips. She was married in Bristol in 1841, and a well remembered event was the celebration of the golden wedding fifty years later.

Mrs. Phillips had a large circle of friends by whom she was much beloved and who will feel her loss with deep regret.

Mrs. Phillips is survived by five children, Mrs. George Hamilton, of New York City, Mrs. Burnet Landreth, of Bristol, Mrs. L. W. Allibone, of Bedford, Pa., Miss Kate Phillips, of Bristol, and Edward S. Phillips, of New York City.

Robert M. Summers, special agent of the Department of Agriculture, is giving Bristol and vicinity a considerable part of his time searching for oleo, and other articles sold against the Pure Food Law.

The Boys' Friendly Society of St. Paul's Mission who have the reputation of giving enjoyable entertainments, will give one on Wednesday, February 21, to conclude with a laughable farce entitled "Cabman 93."

LOCAL MISCELLANY.

Diphtheria has become epidemic in Lansdale.

Boyertown may now establish its own water works.

A discarded locomotive tire will be used in Skippack as a fire bell.

Josephine Williams has been appointed postmistress at Erwinna, Bucks county.

Doyles own capitalists are said to be negotiating for the purchase of the Doylestown electric light works.

Some Chester county Friends have sent resolutions to President McKinley protesting against the army canteen.

Rev. Father Tierney, of Philadelphia, has been appointed rector of the Roman Catholic Church at Haycock, Bucks county.

Norristown's chief of police reports that there are fewer tramps in that locality than at any time within the past 15 years.

Rev. W S S. Warden, pastor of the Baptist Church at Point Pleasant, Bucks county, has accepted a call to a church in Nebraska.

Apples that have been stored by farmers in Bucks and Montgomery counties are now being placed on the market in large quantities.

Kennett Square's new paper, the New American, announces that it is published once a week "for people who hate rum and rotten politics."

Mahlon H. Stout, Esq, who has been spending two years at Pasadena, Cal, has returned to Doylestown and expects to resume the practice of law there.

Sons of America, at Cornwells, Bucks county, after a heated discussion, adopted resolutions expressive of sympathy with the British in the South African war.

All the new cars on the Bristol, Newtown and Doylestown trolley were run on Monday for trial. It is declared that some of the new cars will carry 150 passengers.

The Standard Telephone Company has completed its line to Centreville. A number of 'phones have been placed in the village and are now connected with the main office.

The engagements of Miss Hattie Burns, of Newtown, to George Schaffer, of Somerton, and Miss Edith Mitchell, of Langhorne, to Henry Knight, of Philadelphia, are announced.

The electric lights were turned on in Perkasie for the first time on Thursday evening and there was great rejoicing at the illumination. The electric light plant is operated by the borough.

At a recent meeting of the George School committee the present principal, Prof. George L. Maris, was re appointed for the ensuing school year of 1900-1901. Prof. Maris has been at the head of the institution since its founding in 1893.

A corps of surveyors on Saturday began the work of surveying for the trolley line which the Doylestown Railway Company proposes to build between Doylestown and New Hope. The surveyors are now working between New Hope and Buckingham.

Dr. John Groff, of Harleysville, at the annual meeting of the Montgomery County Medical Society was elected a delegate to the State Society, which will meet in Wilkesbarre, Sept. 18th. He was also elected one of the examiners of the local society.

A jury in proceedings for freeing that portion of the Perkiomen and Reading turnpike between Trappe and Pottstown on Friday recommended the purchase of the road by the county, and awarded the company $15,200. The company opposed the removal of toll gates, unless it was paid $24,000.

The new ruling of the Internal Revenue Department of the Government which forbids the stripping of tobacco outside of factories is almost universally objected to by cigarmakers and manufacturers. There was no demand and no cause for such a ruling. Heretofore a large quantity of leaf tobacco was sent out to various homes in towns where cigar factories are located. It was a source of considerable revenue to many households and the new order of things will have a noticeable effect on the income of many a family. Bucks county cigarmakers are bitterly opposed to the ruling and no doubt an effort will be made to have it rescinded.

As the outcome of an agitation begun a month ago of the question as to why so few patients were discharged from the Hospital for the Insane, at Norristown, 78 were discharged last month as cured. A committee of the trustees looked into the matter, and at once inaugurated the movement which resulted in relieving the institution of a number of inmates, whose condition seems to have warranted their discharge. The committee making the investigation consisted of Dr. Joseph Thomas, of Quakertown, president of the Board of Trustees; Dr George M. Stiles, of Conshohocken, and Colonel W. J. Elliott, of Philadelphia. They went through the asylum thoroughly and found sane people thoroughly and plentifully sprinkled among the actual idiots. The total roster of the asylum was 1052 males and 1117 females.

Political Battle in Perkasie.

Large placards on church doors upon which the inquiry: "Will you vote to support Christianity and the church, or Rum," was inscribed, announced the fact on Sunday that a bitter political fight is on in Perkasie. The contest centres in the Burgess candidates. The Republican candidate is John B. Neff, and the Democratic candidate is Isaiah C. Barndt, the latter the proprietor of the hotel known as Barndt's cafe. The church and temperance people of the town have decided to defeat Barndt if possible, and the notices on the churches are a part of the campaign method adopted. A great deal of feeling has been aroused, which will not obate until the polls close.

Letter from the Philippines.

The following letter was received last week by Frank A. Levis from his son Joe, who is with the United States regular troops in the Philippines:

JARO, Island of Panay, P. I,
December 20, 1899.

My Dear Father:—I am delighted to be the recipient of a letter from home, sweet home. Oh! how dismal things are here. It will be a dreary Christmas for the 70,000 troops in the Philippines. No bells to listen to that proclaim the joyful news.

When I think of the good times I had in Bristol, it makes one feel dissatisfied with present conditions. We live in the trenches which are constructed by the use of bamboo, sacks of sugar and earth. We have had several brisk fights of late and many of our boys have been killed. I have recovered from my wounds and am once more on duty. I thought my time had come, at one time, and have preserved the bullet that nearly caused my finish. Tell George Callanan I have gathered a number of relics which I am preserving for him.

According to information we have received from headquarters, we expect to leave here for the United States some time in April and then go to Kentucky for garrison for six months; then to Cuba and Puerto Rico. I recently had a letter from "Billy" Wilson, who is located at Manila with General Otis. I will enclose you the letter he wrote me.

I have not thrived very much in this tropical climate. I weigh but 97 pounds, having dropped from 142½. We expect to go into another battle on the 27th inst. at Previa, a town infested by 7,000 of the enemy. I have a fine collection of bullets which were gathered on the battle-field of Santabarba, the place where I received my wound. We had 22 wounded and 11 killed that day. Since my arrival here on August 30, 1899, I have participated in 8 battles and 4 skirmishes, and am still looking for trouble.

The rainy season has passed and the weather is now dreadfully hot and dry and when we go out on a march the load we have to carry is anything but light. At such times we have to carry a canteen full of water, tin cup, mess kit, spoon, knife, fork, two days' rations, 260 rounds of shells, haversack, gun, bayonet, shelter tent, three pairs socks, two suits underclothes, blue shirt, tent pins, and a double blanket—with gun and all the weight is nearly 90 pounds. Possibly you can imagine what it feels like to start on a 20-mile march with such an outfit in the hot sun, rigged out in cotton underclothes, campaign hat, blue shirt, leggins, big shoes and sore feet. Then when we meet a band of natives, it requires a good deal of effort to get up to the enthusiastic fighting pitch. Only last week we had to fight like devils to get to a river to get water to drink. We killed 9 sharp-shooters. Hoping to hear from you soon,

I remain, your son
JOSEPH E. LEVIS,
Co. H, 18th U. S. Infantry.

Interesting Revival Meetings.

Ernest A Boom began meetings in the First Baptist church on Monday evening, February 5th. The meetings will continue every evening this and next week, excepting Saturday. Large audiences were present at the meetings already held and a deep interest has been manifested. Mr. Boom is full of life and makes the meetings lively. This evening he will begin a series of talks on subjects which attracted much attention in Washington, N. J., where he held meetings before coming to Bristol. Anyone who desires to send in an answer to any of the questions in the series, may do so by writing the answers upon a slip of paper and handing them in at the church any time up to 7.45 o'clock of the evening on which the questions are to be dealt with. The most interesting answers will be read during the evening and the preacher will give an address on the same topic embodying his answer. The following questions will be noticed: Thursday, February 8, at 7 45 p. m., "What is Sin?" Friday, 7.45 p. m., "What Do You Think is the Greatest Sin?" Sunday at 10.30 a. m., "A Word to Believers!" Mass meeting at 4.00 p. m.; topic, "Does God Hold Us Responsible for Sins of Ignorance?" 7.45 p. m, "What's in a Name?" Monday at 7 45 p. m, "What is the New Birth?"

The Tom Thumb Wedding a Great Success.

The Tom Thumb Wedding given in the First Baptist Church on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings was pronounced, by many one of the best entertainments ever given in Bristol. Large audiences greeted the little folks every evening. A number of people were not satisfied with one look at the interesting and amusing ceremony, so were present both evenings and seemed to enjoy the entertainment on the second evening as much as on the first. So great was the desire of many children to see it that it was concluded to have it repeated on Saturday evening at a rate of admission within the reach of all, 10 cents. This was mainly for the benefit of those having large families in which there were children who desired to see the wedding.

The children were pronounced simply perfect in their innocent and happy performances, and presented a beautiful appearance as they stood under the decorated arch and bell of roses. The boys seemed quite at ease in their swallow-tail coats, low-cut vests, white and shining shirt fronts and long trousers. They conducted themselves with the grace and dignity of adults. It was easily seen that they did not regard the entertaining of the audience as a huge joke but meant business. The little girls looked so sweet that both their partners and the audience fell desperately in love with them.

The bride and groom attracted special attention. They spoke in tones so loud and clear that all in the audience were able to hear them. The rich costume, including the train and veil of the bride, excited many favorable comments from the audience. The graceful and dignified carriage of the groom in his full dress was excellent. So was the best man. Little Dudley Bell kept the audience in a constant state of merriment by his amusing appearance and actions in the capacity of usher. Russel Stephen and his little partner were very amusing as they sat side by side in full view of the audience. The little minister astonished the audience both in his appearance and in the manner in which he tied the knot, which were most excellent. The little flower girls in their white dresses and slippers, each carrying a basket of flowers, attracted much attention. The bride's father, who gave her away, could not have done better had he tried. The bridesmaids, ushers and guests were highly praised by the large audiences. Every child who took part in the entertainment was deserving of the highest praise and received it.

Mrs. S. T. Valentine, who had charge of the training of the children, and her aids deserve the highest commendation, as do the parents of the children who took such an interest in making the occasion a sucess. The bridal party and guests were as follows:

Bridal Party—"Tom Thumb," Alvord Valentine; "Jennie June," Helen Bell; Best Man, Newton Lukens.

Bridesmaids—Marguerite Stephen, Anna Dawson, Katie Kraft, Martha Collyer.

Ushers—Russel Hellings, Ellwood Watt, Howard Lovett, Dudley Bell.

Flower Girls—Hazel Rook, Laura Margerum.

Minister—Joe Goldey.

Bride's Father—Frank Rodan.

Bride's Mother—"Mrs. J. June," Mabel Groff.

Groom's Father—Fred Everhart.

Groom's Mother—Irma Dawson

Guests—Anna Tice, May Spangler, Eva Wissaw, Ethel Appleton, Clara Cummons, Emily Dawson, Adelaide Johnson, Helen Albright, Florence Albright, Bertha Tice, Livingstone Joyce, Russel Stephen, Willie Jackson, Louie Everhart, Ethel Margerum.

BRISTOL 35—PENNA. B. C. 20.

The Bristol National League team encountered little difficulty in disposing of Manager McBride's re organized "bikers" last Saturday evening at Battery A. Armory in Philadelphia. Bristol took the lead at the start and maintained the advantage throughout the game. The first half ended with the score being 19 to 10 in favor of the country team. Klein threw eight field goals and could have probably doubled the number if it had been necessary. The line up:

Bristol.	Positions.	P. B. C.
Klein	forward	Keen
Bennett	forward (Penrose)	Hedges
Everingham (Snow)	centre (Shirtel)	Donley
Plant	defence (Penrose)	Heite
Crisp	defence	Woodward

Goals from field—Klein 8, Bennett 3, Everingham 2, Keen 4, Donley 2, Plant, Crisp, Snow 2, Woodward, Heite, Shirtel. Goals from offence—Donley 2, Everingham. Offences—Heite 2, Everingham, Klein, Penrose 2. Referee—Middleton. Time—20 minute halves.

Amateur Basket Ball.

BELL'S ALL STARS 7—SPRING'S SPECIALS 6.

A hotly-contested game of basket ball was played on Saturday in the Æolous Gymnasium between Frank F. Bell s and Charley Spring's picked teams, in which Bell's team came off victorious by the score of 7 to 6. The game was intensely exciting and very scientific throughout, considering the youth of the participants. The features of the game were the good passing and all around work of Bell and Jarvis on Bell's five; and of P. Phillips on Spring's aggregation. The line-up:

Bell's	Positions	Spring's
F. F. Bell	forward	C Spring
C Watt	" (F. Burt'n)	Applet'n
F. Osman	centre	P Phillips
E. Jarvis	guard	C. Hennesey

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

TROUBLE LURKED IN BEER

Judge White Says Brewery Consolidation Has Had a Sad Effect on the Quality of American Lager.

Pittsburg, Jan. 5—Judge J. W. F. White created a commotion in the Criminal Court today by a denunciation of American beer. Thomas Chapman, who pleaded guilty to a charge of aggravated assault and battery, blamed the trouble on beer. Judge White remarked:

"It is better to drink whisky than beer in this country. I suppose home beer is worse than ever since the consolidation of the breweries. That is always the way with monopolies. Those who must drink beer had better drink the imported article."

THE ARNHOLT & SCHAEFER BREWING CO.,
Philadelphia, Pa.,
CHALLENGES

The Opinion of the Learned Judge.

We are not connected with any trust or consolidation of breweries, and produce as fine a beer as ever was made under the eagle eyes of the German Government.

Pure and wholesome beer contains malt, hops, yeast and water; nothing else. The difference in the grain of which the malt is made, the difference in the kiln-drying of the grain to make malt, the difference in the quality and quantity of hops used and the time required for aging, make the variety of light and dark, bitter and sweet beers.

Our Braun-beer (dark), Wiener-export (light), are the peers of any and all foreign beers.

If His Honor, Judge White, or any other person, will get a few bottles of different American beers and set them away together with a few bottles of our beers he will see the difference. Pure bottled beer should be perfectly clear and stay so.

There is a Class of People

Who are injured by the use of coffee. Recently there has been placed in all the grocery stores a new preparation called GRAIN-O, made of pure grains, that takes the place of coffee. The most delicate stomach receives it without distress, and but few can tell it from coffee. It does not cost over ¼ as much. Children may drink it with great benefit. 15c and 25c per package. Try it. Ask for GRAIN O.

Jell-O, The New Dessert,

It Pays to Paint.

There is nothing that adds to the selling value or the renting value of a house like good paint—there is nothing that makes home more home-like than good paint. It pays to paint. The better the paint, the better it pays. Then if you are going to paint you want the best material for it.
